INDIAN HEAD.

The curling club finished their match for the silver medal on Saturday. As there were no other clubs in the district, compete the members played points for its possession, Dan Maclean winning.

Yesterday a curling match was played at Indian Head between Indian and Qu'Appelle fours, resulting in victory for the latter.
The following played: from Qu'Appelle,
J. P. Beauchamp, Dr. Carlow, J. A. Cowan,
S. R. Edwards, skip; from Indian Head,
W. L. Boyd, E. Stubbard, John Binnel, Dan McLean, skip. Two games were played, score, 15 to 10 and 17 to 7. The Indian heads had the oysters served.

The municipal council met on Saturday, this being their last sitting. All the members were present. The claim of Major Bell for credit on sixty days' notice later, was not entertained. By-law No. 50, for preventing stations, bulbs, etc., running at large at any time of the year, was read the third time. By-law No. 51, authorizing payment of officers' salary, was read a third time. A grant of $70 was allowed for expenses to the clerk, who is going to Ontario on immigration business. The report of the town hall building committee, recommending that the contractor's time be extended until June 1st, was accepted. G. A.
Gable was appointed clerk pro tem, in the absence of the clerk, Mr. G. Thompson.
The business of the year was wound up satisfactorily.

WIDE AWAKE.

The entertainment held in the Wide-awake school house on the 26th inst., was a grand success. There was a large crowd and lengthy program. The chair was occupied by Mr. G. Gable. The following is the program: Opening piece, Master Alan Brooks; recitation, "He never smiled again," Master Fred. Dixon; song, "When we are singing together," The Scholastic; recitation,
"My big boots," Master Roger Broley; recitation, "Little Mary's wish," Miss C. Gable; song, "Marching through Georgia," Master Brooks; recitation, "Bruce and the Spider," Master H. Brooks; recitation, "Paul Aylmer's ride," Master A. Brooks; song, "Far away," Mr. and Miss Dixon; recitation, "A sleep at the switch," Miss F. Broley; recitation, "Brooks's song," Mr. Gable; recitation, "The story of the thorn," Miss Broley; recitation, "Last hymn," Miss Gable; recitation, "Curfew shall not ring tonight," Mr. Geo. Gable; recitation, "Aunt Tabitha," Miss Dixon; song, "Over the leas," Miss C. Gable; recitation, "Ask Mamma," Miss Jackson (unrecited); song, "Whip poor will," Miss Brooks and Miss Dixon; recitation, "Lord William, Mr. Fox and the blackbird," song, "I once had a sweet little fairy," Miss C. Gable; recitation, "Smack in school," Miss F. Broley (unrecited); song, "Harriet Brown," Mr. Geo.
Gable (unrecited); recitation, "The quarrel," Mr. H. Skimmer (unrecited); song, "Old folks at home." A vote of thanks was given to the chairman, after which tea was served.
A part of the crowd remained and spent the balance of the night tripping the light fantastic.

BROADVIEW.

The C. P. R. has obtained an abundant supply of clear pure soft water now.
The Presbyterian Sunday school treat and Christmas tree promises much enjoyment to all concerned.
Our rivals are all progressing favorably. Mr. Thompson is so thick muddled he has been able to make a good violent service since last week. He was a polly good fellow for a time at last.
Christmas has come around again. I will a merry one to all your readers. Its origin is obscure. The Roman Church was once on a time sending out missionaries abroad. Pious men were sent. They set a day for saying masses to Christ for his poverty. He was able to make a good violent service since last week. He was a polly good fellow for a time at last.

MOOSOMIN.

Last evening Fred. Conner, of Winnipeg, gave a recitation. His rendering of the "Maiden's Song" was especially good.
The examination for entrance to the high school to be held here, took place last week. A good number were successful.

The election for mayor promises to be an exciting one. Both candidates, Mr.
Forbes and Mr. Smith, seem confident of success. However, election day will prove "the survival of the fittest."
The Presbyterian minister, Mr. Bang-has, and his daughter, Mrs. Winkler, left for a trip to Ontario Wednesday morning.
During the next gentleman's absence his pupils will be supplied by Mr. W. B. Cambridge, of Winnipeg.

Judgment was given by Mr. Justice Wainwright in the Queen vs. Pearson, on Monday. Pearson, it seems, had written under a name about thirty business letters from town. He was let out on bail, but jumped it, and after a long chase, was caught hiding in bed at home. The evidence was purely circumstantial, but of sufficient strength to convict. He was sent down to 9 months for the year. The sentence may seem severe, but when the defendant's condition in which many far-more are left in confinement, he got his deserve.

THE CRONIN VERDICT.

THREE SENTENCED TO IMPRISON-MENT FOR LIFE.

Reports of the finding of the jury in the Cronin case. It took the jury nearly seventy hours to decide. The papers in Chicago have been Extra Extra Extra Extra the result.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16, 3:15 p.m.—The jury has just entered court with the verdict in the Cronin case. Burke, O'Sullivan and Coughlin are sentenced to imprisonment for life. Higgs is found not guilty and Kanne has been sentenced to jail for three years.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14—Judge McConnell arrived at court at 10 o'clock this morning and was informed by Foreman Clark that they had nothing to communicate. Court then adjourned until 12 o'clock this afternoon.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16—The newspapers have been extra announcing the Cronin verdict.
O'Sullivan, Burke and Coughlin are to hang;
Higgs, imprisonment for life; Kanne, 25 years. The jury is not out, but it is believed about correct.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16, 10:30 a.m.—It is now more than sixty-five hours since the jury in the Cronin case were marched over the "Bridge of Sighs" into the seclusion of the jail, and as yet they have not been able to agree upon a verdict. As hour after hour passed, and the hours lengthened into days, there has been no moderation of the intense excitement which prevails all over the city.
The court house and the newspaper office have been thronged with anxious crowds of men and women too, all more than concerned that they should fail to hear the first news of the result. If anything, the suspense and excitement has increased since Saturday. The telephone exchanges have been kept busy since early yesterday morning answering enquiries as to the status of the case, and in almost every conspicuous window in the city hourly bulletins were posted up, with the same monotonous and unsatisfactory report: "No verdict yet."

Since the jury passed into their room they have not had communication with a single soul from the outside. The doors have been kept constantly locked, except when the trusty bailiffs who are in charge have had to bring in articles of necessity. Not a single communication, verbal or written, has passed between the jury, Judge McConnell, or anybody connected with the trial.
The voices of the jurors cannot be heard outside their room, so that there is absolutely no authentic information to be gained in any way respecting the status of their deliberations or the cause of delay.

Judge McConnell's court room was locked all day yesterday, and the crowds congregated in any way within the corridors, State Attorney's and clerk's offices in the main building, waiting, micawber like, for "something to turn up." Anything so long as it was new.

About 5 o'clock yesterday, Judge McConnell, accompanied by Sheriff Watson, arrived at the court house, but as the jury had nothing to say to him he returned home. At 8 o'clock the jury were taken to the waiting crowd that the jury had nothing to communicate to Judge McConnell, who had sent word he would not open court until 10 o'clock this morning.

In the meantime there is nothing new to communicate. The jury seems far from agreement as ever, and it is very generally believed that they will disagree.

There is a report that now finds ready credence, to the effect that one juror is actuated by motives other than those of strict justice. Names are freely mentioned, but facts upon which there is an assertion of this kind are meagre. It is stated, however, as a peculiar circumstance that one juror who objected to serving on account of his poverty, did not draw his allowance until a few days ago, while others drew theirs weekly.

It is generally conceded to-night that juror Culver is the only recalcitrant member, but there is a wide difference of opinion as to the motives by which he is actuated.
Culver is a prominent member of the Methodist Church, a prohibitionist, and a believer in complete social reform. During the intervals of the trial he has been a close Bible reader, carrying a small edition in his pocket. Those who know him best declare his integrity impeccable. The startling statement to make that the mental strain of the long trial has unbalanced his mind, and that he is, to a degree, at least, distracted on the subject of Cronin's death and its cause. The report takes from the juror's room that he has separated himself from the jurors and maintains continued silence, refusing to discuss the case.

A Welcome to Ex-Foreigners.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 16.—The project to tax foreigners resident in France, which is being seriously considered and will not unlikely become a law, can fall to appear in the eyes of some of the victims as the height of absurdity. Americans and Englishmen are of the opinion that it is enough of a tax to be known as a foreigner in Paris, tradesmen promptly leaving an imprint upon them in the form of an augmentation of prices as soon as they hear their voices. One clause of the trouble is aimed at workmen sent out by the country and a fully foster the prejudices of the laborer.
In this lies the possibility of its adoption.
There are in round numbers half a million Italian workmen in France, and notwithstanding the distance of their home to the Germania, there are many of the latter in the large cities. They invariably claim to be Alsacians and are shrewd enough to pass for such. Nearly all the best workers in the Parisian restaurants are of this class, and as they are valued for their logical accomplishments their employers do not inquire too seriously into their nationality.

fire to Greely's warehouse at the foot of Church street, on the night of Nov. 13th.
The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

assaulting a little girl at Weston. Vance has been wanted for the past six weeks.

Prof. Golden Smith has given forty pairs of blankets to St. George's Society for distribution among worthy poor families in the city.

Mr. Charles Millar, solicitor for Madame Allison (Gye, yesterday at Osgoode Hall appealed to Mr. Justice Street from the order made by the Master in Chambers for the examination of Allison at Chicago during his opening of the new Auditorium. Mr.
Millar contends that this examination cannot be taken pending his appeal to the Divisional Court to have the action of Mr.
Thompson against his client dismissed for want of prosecution. Mr. W. H. Blake opposed the appeal. His Lordship reserved judgment.

The Indian Commission will sit at Osgoode Hall to-day to hear evidence regarding the claim of the Cayuga Indians for the continuance of the bounty that was paid by the State of New York until 1860. Col. Gilkinson, ex-superintendent of the Broadford reserve, arrived in the city yesterday with James Symes, the interpreter; the Cayuga chief, William Wyse and Isaac Hicks, and a number of witnesses.

At the Police Court yesterday afternoon

254 Queen street west, was also fined $20 and costs in two similar cases.

AIDING THE LAND LEAGUERS.

$120,000 Collected to the Irish Fund This Morning.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 16.—Rev. Dr.
Reilly, treasurer of the Irish National Land-League, to-day called $120,000 to Dr.
Kenny, treasurer of the Irish League, for the use of the Tenants' Defence Fund. Dr.
Reilly, in an interview, said: "The need of funds for the league was never more urgent. The Irish people are entering upon the last stage of their agitation, and a desperate struggle is going on between the tenants and landlords of Ireland. The landlords recognize that their tenure is doomed. I shall be sorely disappointed if the Irish in America and in each case, the tenants in their last and most heroic of their efforts to extricate themselves from the cursed system of their vassal and wage slaves, their spirits. Remittances will be made as fast as money is received and there are already some signs that the League in America is taking to this work."

Wherein Does the County Lie?

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The whole machinery of the Government is now in motion to secure the indictment, arrest and extradition of Cashier Shoup. If no extraditable offence can be proved against him, and if he is in Her Britannic Majesty's North American possessions, of which there is little doubt, his surrender, when his whereabouts is discovered, will be asked on the ground of international comity.

Struck by Poison and the Razor.

WILMINGTON, Dec. 16.—This morning Mrs.
Kyte, wife of a stone cutter of this town, suffered by taking arsenic and in addition cutting her throat with a razor. Death resulted from the poison, she failed to over the popular view. She had been ill a long time and was in a very dependent state. She leaves a family of six small children, and two young twins about two weeks old.

The City of Calcutta.

JOHNSON, Cal., Dec. 11.—The heavy rains of the past 24 hours raised the river to an alarming height. At 3:15 p.m. the bridge across the Ganges at Woodville was washed away. At 4 p.m. the London street bridge was carried away, cutting off communication between Johnson and the Pennsylvania railway station. No lives were lost. The water at 8 p.m. was rising rapidly and no further damage is approaching.

Another Title Bought.

New York, Dec. 16.—The title to the book which arrived this morning, the passengers Baron Hulse of the company to marry Miss Sarah daughter of Millionaire Sturges.

NEWS FROM THE CAPITAL.

A Movement on Foot to Establish a National Bank.

OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—There is a strong movement on foot to petition Parliament to adopt a national banking system like that of the United States when the charters of the Canadian banks expire in 1901. It is opposed by the banks, but the ground is that it would not affect the circulation of bank notes, besides depriving the country of an elastic currency.

Lt. Col. Hurler, assistant commissioner North-West Mounted Police, has been granted the rank of lieutenant-colonel in the active militia and appointed an extra aide-de-camp to the Governor-General.

The standard for men joining the permanent corps of the militia is announced: Minimum chest measure, 34 inches; height for artillery, 5 feet 6 inches; for other corps, 5 feet 5 inches.

In the Supreme Court this afternoon, the argument on the Haldimand election appeal was resumed by Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C.

The Free Press says: Mr. Peter White, M.P. for North Renfrew, says he will not accept the position of Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons if it is offered him. The remainder of the committee who were taken on at the Dominion Printing Bureau some time ago by arrangement with the Government to complete their three months' engagement, were discharged yesterday.

A Big Blaze at Port Robinson.

WELLAND, Dec. 14.—About 1.45 this morning a disastrous fire broke out in Macomb's "Deehee" grocery at Port Robinson, and nearly all the business houses there fell a prey to the flames. As there are no appliances for fighting the fire the flames quickly spread to Coleman's store and bakery, the next to go being J. & T. Coulter's dry goods store in their brick block, occupied overhead by the Music Hall and lodge rooms. Coulter & Bennett's tailor shop was next attacked and then the brick block owned by Mr. Robert Elliott and occupied by C. B. Bennett.

Coulter's loss on building is $3,500, insurance $2,000; in Waterloo: loss on stock $2,000; in Waterloo: Mr. Elliott's loss on building $4,000, insurance $1,500; in Coleman's: loss on stock $3,500, insurance $600; in "Deehee": loss $500, insurance $300; loss on stock owned by Martin, Small, Masons and Sons of Temperance, about $18,000, total insurance about $4,500.

The loss coming just before Christmas and when the merchants had just received their Christmas stocks, makes it doubly hard for them. The fire was no doubt of an incendiary origin.

Another Johnstown Horror.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 16.—The Opera House horror last night was fully as shocking as reports made it. None of those now surviving are seriously injured, being merely bruised and shocked. The doctors say the most remarkable feature of the accident is that not a single bone was broken, either of those killed or of those injured.

The following is a correct list of the killed: George Shooker, aged 23, teamster; Mrs. Lucie Claycomb, domestic, aged 17; John Miller, colored waiter; John Fols, aged 68, coal miner; Mrs. Wesley Burns, aged 40, of Somerset County; Miss Clara Burns, aged 17, daughter of the above; George Horner, aged 11, jumped from top gallery, thirty feet, to the parquette, neck broken; Mrs. John W. Nester, aged 25, of this city; Edwin Binger, aged 9, Cannanburgh.

There were 800 people in the house; 240 of these occupied chairs in the parquette. Possibly 250 more were in the circle and sides of the parquette. In the first gallery all the seats were occupied and the aisle packed. In the second or top gallery all the benches were occupied and many were standing. The cause of death in every instance was the rushing at the doorway leading to the street in the frantic efforts of the people to get out of the building. The cry of fire was sounded from the top gallery when the last act of the play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was within a few minutes of completion. Instantly upon the cry being raised the audience made a break and a plunge for the narrow exit. Those in front were thrown forward, and upon them the whole mass of people tumbled headlong, climbing over them and causing a jam right at the street door. The scene at this time was horrible. A great crowd at once gathered in the street and pushed up so closely against the theatre entrance that the police could not keep them back. To drive them away it was found necessary to turn a stream of water on them from a fire hose. All at this time the yells and cries of both those inside and outside the theatre were terrible to hear, and were heard for squares.

The cause of the fire alarm was smoke issuing from the chimney of a kitchen in the rear of the residence of Dr. Wakefield, several squares away.

A Heavy Loss of Jewellery.

MISSISSAUGA, Dec. 16.—The ex-Empress of Brazil has received a telegram from Rio Janeiro informing her that all her jewels have been stolen and that the police are investigating the case. The loss will be a heavy blow to her personal fortune. The jewels comprised the finest Brazilian diamonds in the world. If the republic should decide to continue Dom Pedro's income the loss of the treasure will be severely felt, as they were looked upon as the chief immediate resources of the family.

A Kidnapping Case.

BOSTON, Dec. 16.—Ellis Powell writes from Santa Fe Springs, Cal., offering to guarantee $50,000 for a fight at his place between Sullivan and Jackson.

The Marquis de Cay, formerly the ambassador of Adeline Patti, is dead.

Give Him The Pull Penalty.

TORONTO, Dec. 16.—The jury this morning brought in a verdict of guilty against James Lewis, the fellow who criminally assaulted a 4 year old girl. In addition to finding him guilty they recommended that he be given the full penalty of the law. The statute in such cases provides for imprisonment for five years to life. The verdict has given considerable satisfaction here.

ENGLAND'S STRIKES.

A Week of Defeat for the Labor Agitators.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Mr. Smalley writes to the Tribune from London: The revolt of the English laborer against the existing relations between society and himself proceeds fast, but runs an uneven career. Down to last week the strikers had been successful, but last week, with one exception excepted, their history was one of disaster.

The Silvertown strike and the far more important Manchester gas workers' strike ended in complete failure. The men were beaten at Silvertown because they were not with courage and determination equal to their own, and with resources and organization far superior. The facts in that case have been stated, and need not be repeated. So of Manchester. But what is remarkable in Manchester is that the victory has been won by the community itself over one section or one class. Municipal democracy has shown itself able to govern when occasion arises, with a strong hand. Manchester people soon made up their minds that they did not care to see taxes raised in order to increase the wages of the gas workers, which were already high. They preferred to cover themselves by the government of the city.

The remainder of the strikers who were taken on at the Dominion Printing Bureau some time ago by arrangement with the Government to complete their three months' engagement, were discharged yesterday.

The following is a correct list of the killed: George Shooker, aged 23, teamster; Mrs. Lucie Claycomb, domestic, aged 17; John Miller, colored waiter; John Fols, aged 68, coal miner; Mrs. Wesley Burns, aged 40, of Somerset County; Miss Clara Burns, aged 17, daughter of the above; George Horner, aged 11, jumped from top gallery, thirty feet, to the parquette, neck broken; Mrs. John W. Nester, aged 25, of this city; Edwin Binger, aged 9, Cannanburgh.

There were 800 people in the house; 240 of these occupied chairs in the parquette. Possibly 250 more were in the circle and sides of the parquette. In the first gallery all the seats were occupied and the aisle packed. In the second or top gallery all the benches were occupied and many were standing. The cause of death in every instance was the rushing at the doorway leading to the street in the frantic efforts of the people to get out of the building. The cry of fire was sounded from the top gallery when the last act of the play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was within a few minutes of completion. Instantly upon the cry being raised the audience made a break and a plunge for the narrow exit. Those in front were thrown forward, and upon them the whole mass of people tumbled headlong, climbing over them and causing a jam right at the street door. The scene at this time was horrible. A great crowd at once gathered in the street and pushed up so closely against the theatre entrance that the police could not keep them back. To drive them away it was found necessary to turn a stream of water on them from a fire hose. All at this time the yells and cries of both those inside and outside the theatre were terrible to hear, and were heard for squares.

The cause of the fire alarm was smoke issuing from the chimney of a kitchen in the rear of the residence of Dr. Wakefield, several squares away.

A Heavy Loss of Jewellery.

MISSISSAUGA, Dec. 16.—The ex-Empress of Brazil has received a telegram from Rio Janeiro informing her that all her jewels have been stolen and that the police are investigating the case. The loss will be a heavy blow to her personal fortune. The jewels comprised the finest Brazilian diamonds in the world. If the republic should decide to continue Dom Pedro's income the loss of the treasure will be severely felt, as they were looked upon as the chief immediate resources of the family.

A Kidnapping Case.

BOSTON, Dec. 16.—Ellis Powell writes from Santa Fe Springs, Cal., offering to guarantee $50,000 for a fight at his place between Sullivan and Jackson.

The Marquis de Cay, formerly the ambassador of Adeline Patti, is dead.

TORONTO, Dec. 16.—The jury this morning brought in a verdict of guilty against James Lewis, the fellow who criminally assaulted a 4 year old girl. In addition to finding him guilty they recommended that he be given the full penalty of the law. The statute in such cases provides for imprisonment for five years to life. The verdict has given considerable satisfaction here.

A real old time temperance meeting was held on the 12th inst at Montgomery's school house, six miles north of Vinlen. It was under the patronage of the Vinlen council of R. T. of T., but the chairman, Mr. N.W. Hunter, and the choir musical accompaniment were from Section 11, where the meeting was held. The building was literally packed, there being not fewer than 100 persons present. From Vinlen a four-horse sleigh load and two couples in single rigs made their appearance. Rev. Mr. Andrews spoke on prohibition in Maine and showed the benefits of taking the total abstinence pledge, urging all present to sign to-night. Mr. Andrews spoke on the deep hold which total abstinence principles had taken on the people of Ontario. Mr. Watkinson gave practical illustrations from his own terrible experience in drink, and showed the great benefit which abstinence had been to him—and would be to all.

Mr. Watkinson and Mr. A. Murdoch on the concertino and piccolo gave some very enjoyable music, and the choir under Mr. Heise's direction sang a few appropriate selections. Two pledges were circulated and fifty-eight persons signed their own names voluntarily to the pledge taken by the R. T. of T.

A LITTLE SPARK.

May kindle a great fire; just so dyspepsia and bad blood give rise to countless complaints which cannot be cured until the dyspepsia is removed and the blood purified. To do this is the work of Burdock Blood Bitters, a medicine which always cures dyspepsia, bad blood and all complaints of a similar origin.

It is now understood that the Dominion Parliament will meet on the 16th of January. It promises to be one of the most important sessions that Canada has ever witnessed. The fight over the Jesuit bill, Northwest dual language, the disturbed relations between Canada and the United States, and the possibility of extending commercial relations with the neighboring republic will occupy much of the time of the session.

QU'APPELLE.

—Municipal nominations next Monday.

—Rev. Father Montrieux goes to Waseley on Monday morning.

—We heartily wish our readers all the pleasure that mortals can enjoy during the coming festive season.

—The largest and best assorted stock of wall paper ever brought to Qu'Appelle has just been opened at the Medical Hall.

—Mr. Grieve has requested us to state that he will ring out the old year and ring in the new. He also wishes to thank those who have contributed to the daily bell ringing.

—The children of St. Peter's Sunday School are to be entertained to a party on Jan 2nd and a Christmas Tree will take the central place in the course of the evening's amusements.

—A meeting of the electors of Ward 3 of this municipality was held at Mr. Geo. Cole's house on Friday last, at which it was decided to nominate Mr. J. B. Hawkes as a candidate for councillor.

—We would remind our readers of the entertainment by the Qu'Appelle Philharmonic Minstrels, to be given in the Opera House (Government Hall), on the 8th January. The program will appear in our next issue.

—Don't forget the theatrical performance of "Our Boys" at the Government Hall on Monday next, the 30th instant at 20 o'clock; doors open at 7.30. Observe particularly this comes off on Monday, the 30th, and not Tuesday the 31st, as advertised by mistake in last week's Progress. This play had an extraordinary run in London. England. See advertisement for names of characters. Tickets for reserved and numbered seats at Messrs. Beauchamp and Caswell's, where plans and programs of Hall and seats are to be seen. Apply early and secure your own choice of seats. Reserved seats, 75 cents; admission 50 cents.

—Christmas cards at any price you want them at the Qu'Appelle Medical Hall.

—All the holiday goods at the Qu'Appelle Medical Hall are just the thing for Christmas and New Year's presents.

—The nomination for municipal councillors will take place at McLean's hall on Monday, the 30th inst., from 10 o'clock until noon.

—Regular choir of St. Peter's has been lately supplemented by an auxiliary choir of ladies and gentlemen and we are glad to note an already marked improvement in the way in which the musical parts of the services are rendered. We believe that with the efforts now being made on the part of the organist and of both choirs, the singing in our church will soon come up to the standard looked for in the cathedral church of diocese.

—On Tuesday last the Rev. G. N. Dobie, of Grenfell, and the Rev. T. G. Beal, of Moosomin, were advanced from the Diaconate to the Priesthood at St. Peter's Pro. Cathedral by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese. The service was rendered in a very impressive manner and his Lordship preached an excellent sermon on our Lord's Commission to His Apostles showing the necessity of the Priesthood in the Christian church and the grounds on which it bases its distinctive authority and power. We are sure that earnest prayers are with these gentlemen that they may be abundantly blessed in their ministry.

—Those who intend to take advantage of the cheap excursion rates to Eastern Canada via the Canadian Pacific Railway can do so any day from now till Monday morning next; also on January 6th, 7th and 8th. The rate is $49.80, and the tickets are good for three months, with the privilege of renewing for 15 or 30 days upon payment of $5 or $10. Tickets are sold at Montreal to all points east thereof in Canada to holders of C. P. R. tickets at single fare. Bear in mind that this is the shortest and quickest route to all Eastern points, and by it all changes of cars, transfers and examination of baggage are avoided.

ROSE ISLAND REPORTS.

I can state that we have used Hagar's Yellow Oil with great benefit for colds, sore throat, cuts, burns, chapped hands, etc. We can recommend it to be very useful and good in many different ways.—Mrs. AARL HARRIS, Rose Island, Ont.

IT CAN'T BE ENFORCED.

In Pittsburgh three aldermen have been indicted for conspiring with a gang of blackmailers who make a business of extorting money, as the report says, from "the proprietors of the unlicensed liquor saloons that have sprung up to the number of about 700 since the Brooks high license law went into effect." This strikingly shows the utter failure of High License, even when coupled with severe restrictions, as a method for "weeding out the low dives." Seven hundred "unlicensed liquor saloons" in Pittsburgh! Yet the anti-Prohibition journals continue to talk about High License as "a measure that can be enforced."

A NEW ELEMENT.

Must be infused into the blood of the weak and debilitated, who suffer from disease of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys or blood. This revitalizing constituent is supplied by Burdock Blood Bitters, which repairs waste, drives out all impurities and restores health to the entire system.

MAKE NO DELAY.

Is a perfect cure for croup and colds, and I can recommend Hagar's Yellow Oil—one bottle of which cured me of a very bad cold. I would say to all sufferers, make no delay in using it, as it gives quick relief.—W. J. KENN, Stillville, Ont.

LIFE IN A LUMBER CAMP.

While working in a lumber camp a year ago I caught a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. I got no relief until I tried Hagar's Rectal Balsam, which cured me entirely. I highly recommend it.—JOHN L. WILSON, Manitowau, Ont.

ASTRAY.

CAME on the premises of the under- signed, 32 1/2, 14, ONE SOBEREY HORSE, marked L.S. and other brands; also ONE BLACK HORSE with three white feet and white face, no brands. The owner is requested to prove property, pay expenses and take them away.

The Manitoba Free Press says: "The Nor-West Farmer is a journal that should be read by every man cultivating an acre of land or owning a domestic animal in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. As its name implies, it is edited especially to meet the requirements of the great fertile belt of the Northwest. It is also valuable to the farmer, rancher, dairyman, rancher, apiculturist and stock fancier."

Mr. John Johnson, Luskington, Parkinson, writes: "Please find enclosed $1 for your valuable paper. It is the most interesting and instructive piece of literature. I would not be without it for many dollars. In fact, it is double as good as the Farmers' Advocate and the other Ontario stock journals." Hundreds of equally satisfactory testimonials are on file.
